FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ZEBRONICS® now with extended warranty.

Chennai: August 29th 2007: Topnotch Infotronics, the owners of leading IT brand “ZEBRONICS®” announced today the extended warranty on ZEBRONICS® 4000 W speakers.

ZEBRONICS® is now offering a 3 year warranty on their newly launched 4000W speaker set.

Making the announcement Mr Pradeep Doshi, Direct Sales TopNotch Infotronics(ZEBRONICS®) said “Some may say this is a very bold move to offer such a long warranty on speakers, however we know how much effort we have put in developing these speakers and what strict quality control measures are being taken for our new speakers lineup. Usually people offer only a years warranty on things like speakers as the lifespan of such a product is supposed to be short. But, we know people in India make an investment on even the smallest things they buy. Hence, we're offering them piece of mind with Great Sound, Great Quality and a long enough warranty.”

ZEBRONICS® recently launched their 2.1 speaker set which has been picked up by the market pretty well. Looks like again they struck the right cord with the Indian audience, with the right mix of quality and price.
